If you're interested in a career in Cybersecurity or Information Technology, this training could be a good option.

1. Organization providing the training:

NPower

2. Physical location where training occurs:

1101 West Pratt Street, Suite 1A

Baltimore, MD 21223

3. Description of the training offered:

The Tech Fundamentals program is meant to prepare individuals for entry-level careers in IT and technology. The program lasts a total of 20 weeks. Classroom training is four hours per day Monday through Friday, either 9:00am – 1:00pm or 2:00pm – 6:00pm. Cohorts launch in the Spring and Fall.

4. Trainees have the opportunity to earn the following industry-recognized certifications:

Trainees have the opportunity to earn the following certifications:

- CompTIA IT Fundamentals+
- CompTIA A+
- Google IT Support
- Google IT Project Management

5. Am I eligible?

To be eligible for this training program, applicants must:

- Be within the ages of 18-26 years old, military veterans, or military spouses
- Must have a GED® or High School Diploma

6. What is the application process?

To apply for this training program, please visit https://www.npower.org/apply/ or call 443-863-7263. You may also contact the admissions team at admissionsBaltimore@npower.org for more information.

7. How much can I expect to earn if I complete this program and obtain employment in the cybersecurity or information technology field?

Trainees who complete this program and obtain employment can expect to earn an average of $19 per hour.

8: How much do I have to pay for this program?

There is no cost to trainees.

9. Where can I find more information?

For more information, visit www.npower.org.