represented the Fund. The Claimant represented himself.

After waiting twenty minutes for the Respondent or the Respondent's representative to appear, I proceeded with the hearing in his absence. PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT

I find the following facts by a preponderance of the evidence:

- 1. At all times relevant to the subject of this hearing, the Respondent was a licensed home improvement contractor.⁴
- 2. On July 5, 2017, the Claimant and the Respondent entered into a home improvement contract (Contract). The Contract provides for the following work: install six recessed lights in the kitchen; paint the main and second levels; refinish hardwood floors on main level; install new plumbing fixtures in kitchen including faucet and garbage disposal; install new cabinets in kitchen; install new granite countertops with 4" backsplash; install new sink in kitchen; repair deck/power wash, sand and paint or stain. The agreed-upon Contract price was $15,500.00.
- 3. The Contract included a section 10.0 notes, which provided for the following additional work: crown molding; hardwood flooring (engineered)⁵; replace gas fireplace. The agreed upon price for this additional work was $5,331.20.
 - 4. The total agreed-upon contract price was $20,831.20.

⁴ The Respondent's license has since lapsed (as of August 12, 2019).

⁵ The hardwood flooring in this section of the Contract referred to the living room and breakfast nook areas that were carpeted.

 The Respondent removed the granite countertop and backsplash but never replaced them.
- 8. The Respondent improperly installed the kitchen cabinets so that the doors were not flush when closed. The kickboard of the cabinets was also damaged.
- 9. The Respondent sanded the floors on the main level hallway but applied the wrong color stain on two occasions. The Respondent walked on the floors before the stain had fully dried, leaving footprints on the stain.
- 10. While painting, the Respondent spilled paint on the dining room carpet.

 As compensation for the damaged carpet, the Respondent agreed to install hardwood floors in the dining room.
- 11. The Respondent did not install the hardwood floors in the living room, dining room, or breakfast nook.
- 12. The Respondent improperly patched the deck and did not apply the correct stain.
- 13. The Respondent did not perform any of the work provided for in section 10.0 of the Contract.

- 14. In September 2017, the Claimant contacted the Respondent about the unworkmanlike and incomplete work. The Respondent refused to make corrections or complete the work until the Claimant paid him additional money. The Claimant refused to pay the Respondent any more money until the issues with the work performed were corrected.
- 15. In November or December 2017, an individual who identified himself as affiliated with Working Man LLC, contacted the Claimant and informed the Claimant that the Respondent was no longer working on the Claimant's contract. The individual demanded additional payments from the Claimant before work would resume. The Claimant refused to pay any additional money and the work was never completed.
- 16. The Claimant performed some remedial work, including the installation of a faux granite kitchen countertop and replacement of a few tiles on the kitchen floor that had buckled.
- 17. The Claimant obtained an estimate from DSP Contractors (DSP) to repair and complete the work provided for in the original contact with the Respondent. The amount of the proposal was $21,300.00.7
 - 18. None of the work contained in DSP's proposal has been performed.

DISCUSSION

In this case, the Claimant has the burden of proving the validity of the Claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Bus. Reg. § 8-407(e)(1); Md. Code Ann., State Gov't § 10-217 (2014); COMAR 09.08.03.03A(3). To prove a claim by a preponderance of the evidence means to show that it is "more likely so than not so" when all the evidence is considered. Coleman v.

⁷ The total estimate from DSP was $29,900.00 but $8,600.00 of that amount was for work either not included in the Claimant's original contract with the Respondent or work that the Respondent had completed.

Anne Arundel Ctv. Police Dep't, 369 Md. 108, 125 n.16 (2002).

An owner may recover compensation from the Fund "for an actual loss that results from an act or omission by a licensed contractor" Bus. Reg. § 8-405(a); see also COMAR 09.08.03.03B(2) ("The Fund may only compensate claimants for actual losses . . . incurred as a result of misconduct by a licensed contractor."). "[A]ctual loss' means the costs of restoration, repair, replacement, or completion that arise from an unworkmanlike, inadequate, or incomplete home improvement." Bus. Reg. § 8-401. For the following reasons, I find that the Claimant has proven eligibility for compensation.

The Claimant established that the Respondent, a licensed contractor at the time, performed unworkmanlike, inadequate, and incomplete home improvements. The Respondent performed just a portion of the work set forth in the Contract and the work he performed was clearly done in an unworkmanlike manner. The Claimant established through photographs and testimony that the granite kitchen countertop installed by the Respondent was an incorrect piece, did not have the correct size cutout for the sink, and was chipped. The backsplash installed by the Respondent was also damaged. The kitchen cabinets were damaged at the kickboard and were installed improperly, resulting in the cabinet doors not being flush when closed. The hardwood floors contracted for were not installed and the wrong color stain was applied to the sanded hardwood floor on the first level. The Respondent also walked on the wet stain, leaving footprints. The Respondent repaired the deck and stained it; however, the deck was improperly patched, and the wrong stain was applied. The only work properly completed by the Respondent was the painting.

⁸ The DSP proposal noted that the deck was improperly patched and stained.

The Claimant provided the Respondent with an opportunity to correct and complete the work, but the Respondent refused to perform any additional work until he was paid more money. The Claimant was justified in refusing to pay the Respondent additional funds because the work for which the Claimant had already paid Respondent was unworkmanlike. The Claimant paid the Respondent more than half of the total contract price but had nothing to show for it except some painted walls. I thus find that the Claimant is eligible for compensation from the Fund.

Having found eligibility for compensation I must determine the amount of the Claimant's actual loss and the amount, if any, that the Claimant is entitled to recover. The Fund may not compensate a claimant for consequential or punitive damages, personal injury, attorney fees, court costs, or interest. Bus. Reg. § 8-405(e)(3); COMAR 09.08.03.03B(1). MHIC's regulations provide three formulas to measure a claimant's actual loss, depending on the status of the contract work.

In this case, the Respondent performed some work under the Contract, and the Claimant intends to retain other contractors to complete or remedy that work. Accordingly, the following formula appropriately measures the Claimant's actual loss:

If the contractor did work according to the contract and the claimant has solicited or is soliciting another contractor to complete the contract, the claimant's actual loss shall be the amounts the claimant has paid to or on behalf of the contractor under the original contract, added to any reasonable amounts the claimant has paid or will be required to pay another contractor to repair poor work done by the original contractor under the original contract and complete the original contract, less the original contract price. If the Commission determines that the original contract price is too unrealistically low or high to provide a proper basis for measuring actual loss, the Commission may adjust its measurement accordingly.

COMAR 09.08.03.03B(3)(c).

The Claimant paid the Respondent $11,625.00. The Claimant testified that he hired and paid Luna to install the hardwood floors that the Respondent failed to install. The Claimant presented an invoice from Luna in the amount of $7,112.49 but the invoice reflects that in addition to the hardwood floors, Luna installed carpet throughout the Claimant's home. The Luna invoice was not itemized and therefore cannot be used in the calculation of the Claimant's actual loss. The Claimant also obtained a proposal from DSP, a licensed contractor, to repair and complete the Respondent's work. DSP's proposed total contract price was $29,900.00. The proposal included the installation of carpet in areas not included in the Respondent's contract and paint on the second level walls and ceilings. According to the Claimant's testimony, the Respondent completed the painting set forth in the Contract. For purposes of calculating the Claimant's actual loss, I have deducted the amounts allotted for the installation of carpet and painting from the DSP proposal. The cost of the carpet was $5,250.00 and the cost of the painting was $3,350.00. After subtracting those amounts, the DSP contract price was $21,300.00.

Using the above formula, I calculate the Claimant's actual monetary loss as follows:

Amount paid to the Respondent + Amount paid to correct or complete the work	$ 11,625.00 $ 21,300.00
	$ 32,925.00
- Amount of original contract	$ 20,831.00
Amount of actual loss	$ 12,094.00

The Business Regulation Article caps a claimant's recovery at $20,000.00 for acts or omissions of one contractor and provides that a claimant may not recover more than the amount paid to the contractor against whom the claim is filed. Bus. Reg. § 8-405(e)(1), (5); COMAR 09.08.03.03B(4), D(2)(a). In this case, the Claimant's actual loss of $12,094.00 exceeds the amount he paid the Respondent ($11,625.00). PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I conclude that the Claimant has sustained an actual and compensable loss of $11,625.00 as a result of the Respondent's acts or omissions. Md. Code Ann., Bus. Reg. §§ 8-401, 8-405 (2015); COMAR 09.08.03.03B(3)(c). I further conclude that the Claimant is entitled to recover $11,625.00 from the Fund. Bus. Reg. § 8-405(e)(5); COMAR 09.08.03.03B(4).
