

If you are looking for a job in Capital Transit Transportation and Transportation Construction, then the information below may be of interest to you.

Organization providing the training:

Mayor's Office of Employment Development (Baltimore City)

Physical location training occurs:

Areas of West Baltimore where the Frederick Douglass Tunnel is being built. MOED's aim is for training to take place within those areas, in or near zip code 21217.

Description of the training offered:

Job seekers are trained by providers who teach the Multi-Craft Core Curriculum (MC3) developed by North America's Building Trades Unions and administered by TradesFutures. More information about the curriculum is available here:

<https://tradesfutures.org/about/apprenticeship-readiness-program/>

Trainees have the opportunity to earn the following industry-recognized certifications:

- MC3 Certificates
- OSHA 10
- First Aid, CPR, and AED

Am I eligible?

You are eligible for the program if you:

- Reside in the following zipcodes: 21217, 21223, 21216, and 21201)
- Reside in the zip codes with historically high poverty rates.
- Training providers may screen candidates for additional requirements related to federal jobs, including restrictions on criminal records and drug use (including cannabis r

What is the application process?

The application process for this program is to be determined. Please contact below for more information. There will be no cost to participants for training.

MOED Service Locations: <https://moed.baltimorecity.gov/moed-service-locations>

Training Programs: <https://moed.baltimorecity.gov/train>

How much can I expect to earn if I complete this program and obtain employment?

Individuals hired as union apprentices are eligible for progressively increasing wages that vary by apprenticeship but traditionally start around $18 - $22. After an apprentice attains journeyman status, wages could increase to $30 or more per hour..

Where can I find more information about this program?

More information will be available on MOED's website once the program is underway:

<https://moed.baltimorecity.gov/>