

Maryland Division of Labor and Industry

You are Invited!

Getting Employers in the Know

The Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation—Maryland’s Division of Labor is pleased to present our FREE educational classes available to keep you in the know. Join us for an afternoon that will be packed with information you need to know relating to safety, employment standards and wage issues—information to keep your employees safe and keep employers in compliance.

Maryland Occupational Safety and Health (MOSH)

Hazards in Construction: Falls, Electrocution, Struck-By
and Caught-In or Between

When:

Thursday, April 28, 2016
1:00 p.m.—4:00 p.m.

Who should attend?:

Supervisors, Superintendents & Foremen

Click here to register.

Employment Rules

Employment:

- ◆ Employment Standards
- ◆ Worker Classification
- ◆ Prevailing Wage

When:

Friday, April 29, 2016
1:00 p.m.—4:00 p.m.

Who should attend?:

Owners, Managers & Administrative Staff

Click here to register.

Where:

Worcester County Library • 10003 Coastal Highway, Ocean City, Maryland 21842

If you're unable to register online, please:

• Call: (410) 767-2182 • Email: Melissa.myer1@maryland.gov